

The image shows a close-up of a building's exterior. The facade is covered in a screen of horizontal wooden slats, which are closely spaced and create a rhythmic pattern. Sunlight filters through the slats, casting soft shadows. Green leaves of a plant are visible in the upper and right portions of the frame, partially obscuring the wooden screen. The overall aesthetic is modern and natural.

Rekonstrukce: Vyprávění historie současným jazykem

Kamil Mrva Architects

